

17th ICASA - Newsletter

Issued: February 2013

The 17th International Conference on AIDS and STI's in Africa (ICASA 2013) takes place in Cape Town, South Africa from 7 – 11 December 2013.

Theme: Now More Than Ever, Targeting ZERO

Cape Town is the ideal city for the conference. It has natural beauty, impressive infrastructure and world-class facilities. Cape Town was voted the Favourite City Worldwide for 2012 in the Telegraph Travel Awards, ahead of Vancouver and New York.

Cape Town's famous Table Mountain towers over the city skyline.

Cape Town has a revamped public transport network, world-class accommodation at affordable rates and amenities that rival those in any major city around the world. Apart from the natural beauty, delegates will appreciate the Cape Town International Convention Centre, ranked amongst the best venues in the world, ensuring all attending the 17th ICASA will enjoy the best South Africa has to offer. The host country has successfully organized the 2010 FIFA World Cup as well as two AFCON tournaments.

Like never before, ICASA 2013 is run by professional conference organizers. The local organisers are experienced conference professionals who have successfully managed large events such as SA AIDS Conferences, the Access to Healthcare in Africa Conference in 2009, the 2010 Orphans and Vulnerable Children in Africa Conference and the World Toilet Summit in 2012. With a solid track record and a reputation for excellence, the secretariat of the 17th ICASA will guarantee a successful and rewarding experience for all participants.

For more information on this year's ICASA please visit www.icasa2013southafrica.org.

Follow us on Twitter on @Icasaconference.

See you in Cape Town!